

CHOICE, but the evil one.

America has made a most fundamental and evil choice. The innocent real life creations and the only real hope for America will not be protected says our new elected leader. President elect Obama is a real enemy of innocent Unborn American lives. He will do all in his power his (promised first act, F.O.C.A.) to remove what little protection they have now. Although he is powerless to do this, he wants this issue of pro-life/pro-choice to be eliminated. The right to life is a God given right therefore his fight is against God. Embracing fully the premise that the “inconvenient” (unborn) can be exterminated, he could easily move toward the logical conclusion that the “inconvenient” (born) could also be exterminated. We have removed the protection by law the lives we have created, do not assume that the law will continue to protect the rest of us. The country we created with lofty ideals is no more, we are no different than any other country in the world and there are only three types; atheist, pagan and fanatic. The founders must be truly sad to see that America has become a pagan land such, as that destroyed by the Israelites, so that it could then become their “promised” land.
