

Nancy Pelosi

Poor Nancy Pelosi, driven by political vision and blinded by the hypocrisy of her party, has become the willing or witless witness for the father of all lies. Poor Nancy Pelosi, claiming authentic Catholicity, denies that persons begin eternity at their conception but at some other undefined point in their existence. However, Authentic Catholics believe that Mary began her eternity at her Immaculate Conception and not at some undefined point in her existence. Somehow she is able to reconcile this obvious contradiction. Poor Nancy Pelosi selects early Doctors of the Church for corroboration of her flawed position. She is fully aware of the biological and medical knowledge that they were lacking and chooses to cast it aside for political gain. She prefers to live in the past while her brothers and sisters in the womb every day are at risk of being denied their place in America. Poor Nancy Pelosi, clearly understands that prior to 1973 the deliberate termination of Unborn Americans was a criminal act. A secular court agreed to listen to an argument that would withdraw the right to life, liberty and the pursuit to happiness to Unborn Americans based upon someone else's "freedom". Lacking any specific constitutional citing in defense of the "unborn", the court de-criminalized the act and denied their right to be born. The criminals won. Poor Nancy Pelosi, a stumbling block for Catholics who are weak in their faith and a champion for those who encourage the extermination of inconvenient yet innocent human life. Communists, nazis, and fascists, criminals all, had/have no compunction against exterminating inconvenient innocent human life, unborn or born. Her Democrat party plank will eventually extend its reach to the rest of us no doubt, when they find some hidden freedom for such in the constitution. The secular court can de-criminalize as it pleases remember. Poor Nancy Pelosi, Speaker of the House, is no speaker for the Father of life, truth and love and His son Jesus of whose Church she claims to be a witness. Jesus witness was and through His true followers is, life giving and not life extinguishing. Every one who is actively (or passively) pro-choice is a co-participant in each and every act of every abortionist, and collectively extinguishes a human life. You cannot support the deed without the guilt associated with the deed. Denying a human life its right to be born based upon someone else's freedom is the ultimate and most insidious lie! They are witnesses to be sure but for the father of all lies.

Poor Nancy Pelosi, pray for her and the Democrats, witnesses for lies.
Pray for all Catholic shepherds (who are not) who have allowed this corruption to flourish in Jesus' Church for 36 years!
