

America's Patriots and Pagans

Patriots: morally fervent, worship their creator and willingly place themselves at risk for the benefit of others. They are peaceful and loving spirits, by any simple observation.

Pagans: morally bankrupt, worship many things but principally themselves and readily sacrifice others to advance their own interests. They are deliberately confrontational, as true violent spirits must be.

Patriots gave us “life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness”, most noble words, especially for Unborn Americans. They knew all innocent life was sacrosanct with God-given rights. They as well as those who followed knew when American life began and all citizens of good will cherished those lives. America, a God fearing nation grew in wisdom and strength, becoming a morally principled force to be reckoned with. However, all great and successful human endeavors are viewed with great envy, by the morally bankrupt and a great vigilance is required to prevent their ascendance. Evil is always on the prowl looking for the complacent and the morally fragile, the history of human nature, simply repeating itself. Such truth for individuals is doubly true for nations! America's grand experiment, with a loss of humility, became root-less and was ready for a great fall.

Pagans made their fatal thrust in 1973, giving America “reproductive rights” those seemingly innocuous words for us but immediately deadly for Unborn Americans, and gained their foothold. A cataclysmic rift was established between the Creator and His created, as His Commandments were no longer relevant. America was still. No thunderous outcry was heard. Church and state acquiesced and no action was taken to prevent the resultant carnage of the past 33 years! The most fundamental of all principles, innocent human life, was no longer sacrosanct and killing it became legal! Evil triumphed and America suffered a terminal wound. The onslaught continued and every supportive moral principle is slowly but assuredly being destroyed. Clergy and politicians are rushing to save the term “marriage” but were nowhere to be seen saving human life with a vital Human Life Amendment. Hopelessly hapless clergy and politicians have already lost the soul of America but are too preoccupied to see it. The rest of America (fat, dumb and happy; as evil likes them to be) is also too preoccupied.

Sadly today only a small remnant of patriots is visible in America. They bear faithful public witness to the roots, which America was founded upon. They are outside the clinics peacefully, prayerfully and valiantly attempting to intervene for Unborn American lives. They do save a few lives but even this public witness is relentlessly attacked. The pagans see any Unborn American lives saved as totally unacceptable dissent from their bankrupt interests. When the violent spirits finally rule, all dissenters will be silenced, not just the Unborn. Poor preoccupied Americans are too numb to see any historical parallels between current events, and our personal descent toward tyranny.

Romans 8: 5-7: Those who live as their human nature tells them to, have their minds controlled by what human nature wants. Those who live as the Spirit tells them to, have their minds controlled by what the Spirit wants. To be controlled by human nature results in death; to be controlled by the Spirit results in life and peace. And so a person becomes an enemy of God when he is controlled by his human nature; for he does not obey God's law, and in fact he cannot obey it. Those who obey their human nature cannot please God.

Prayers if you have them, but since we have abandoned our own creations, our Creator may have to abandon America to its just desserts, and not listen. We have truly become a land of too few witnesses!
